Hayneedle Selects Four Nonprofits to Receive $40,000

Grants will allow organizations to do more in support of their missions

Omaha, Neb. — Feb. 21, 2018 — Hayneedle has selected four nonprofits to receive a total of $40,000 to provide additional support for each of their missions within communities where Hayneedle has operations. These grants will boost organizations focused on providing people and families in need with affordable and healthy housing, food security, community revitalization, and the restoration/preservation of homes and communities with historical significance.

The following organizations each received a $10,000 grant:

- Together Omaha – Together Omaha’s mission is to prevent and end homelessness in the Omaha community and work toward a community of prosperity where everyone experiences safe, affordable housing, food security, health and wellness.

- Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance – The mission of the OHKA is to improve the lives of children and families by assessing homes, providing education and connecting clients to home repair services to reduce health and safety risks and create a healthy home for every child.

- Restoration Exchange Omaha – Restoration Exchange Omaha is dedicated to the preservation and restoration of older homes, buildings and neighborhoods in the Omaha/Council Bluffs metro through education and advocacy.

- Community-Building Institute Middletown, Inc. – CBI Middletown is focused on being a primary force for creating and sustaining community revitalization; changing Middletown, Ohio, one family, one student and one neighborhood at a time.

“Each of these organizations is making a difference, and for us to be able to support them in delivering further on their mission’s is rewarding,” said Lexie Myers, Hayneedle HR Business Partner. “At Hayneedle, we are passionate about the communities where we live and work and want to do what we can to make the most impact right in our own backyard.”
